

Since taking part in the Indiana's privacy protection act, we have received 1 call or less a week instead of 4 or 5 usually at dinner time. Leave the law alone. It works for us, we like it, and do not want any changes made that would lessen the law in Indiana.